

Prince of Peace

by Cecil Billingsley & Jeff Joslin

Mark 11: 1-11 & Ephesians 6: 10-18

Intro: E Esus E Esus (repeat)

A A2 E Esus

And the people, they lined the streets.

A A2 E Esus

He rode on palms, laid at His feet.

D A
Would be warriors celebrated, the crowd believed they'd been

E D Dsus
liberated, and they shouted out, "Victory!

B A E Esus E Esus
and hailed the one that we all call the Prince of Peace.

Dbm B
Before you rise up from your knees,

A
the sword of truth you plan to seize,

E Esus D Dsus
just be sure you're not deceived, and find you're at war

A A2 E Esus E Esus
with the one we call, the Prince of Peace.

A A2 E Esus

And the crowds, they all went on home.

A A2 E Esus

And in the hall, He stood alone.

D A
And went on in where Generals feast, and loudly boast about their

E D Dsus
deeds. In silence He surveyed this place, as if He knew,

B A E Esus E Esus
the victory, of the one we call the Prince of Peace.

Dbm B
 Secure behind our shield of faith,
A
 we wield the sword that is His Word,
E Esus D Dsus
 and hope that we are not deceived, and find we're at war,
A A2 E Esus E Esus
 with the one we call, the Prince of Peace.

A D E D A D E D A
 God has said... judgment is His... but the devil... will still roam free.

B A
 You must know a battle for our souls is waged unseen.

B A
 He seeks to waste our lives, and to take our liberty.

A D E D A D E D A
 But in truth... this battle's won... not by sword... not by bomb or gun.

B A
 Who is the one who paid the price for victory?

B A B A E Esus E Esus
 He is the one, the one we call, the Prince of Peace.

Dbm B A
 As we rise up from our knees, out to slay our enemies,
E Esus D Dsus
 we should be sure we're not deceived, and find that we're at war,
A A2 E Esus E Esus
 with the one we call, the Prince of Peace.

E Esus E Esus end on E
 All hail the Prince of Peace. (Repeat)
